

PRAYER and PRAISE POINTERS

FBH International

February 2019

- 1 Friday — Dara, an Iranian woman, professed faith in Christ in December. She now says “I feel born again. I didn’t feel that way when I first started reading the Bible, now I read the Gospel every morning and evening. I talk with Christ all day”
- 2 Saturday — Marat was born in Moscow into a Muslim family. He found the FEBC broadcast by accident, and has been listening regularly. We ask that through these programs, God will show Marat his need for the Saviour.

- 5 Tuesday — A listener in Ukraine says that she used to see no hope for those who lost everything in the war. Now, thanks to programs she has heard through FEBC, she understands that there is a far greater hope in Jesus than in material things.
- 6 Wednesday — FBH International continues to enjoy great partnerships with overseas ministries. Our relationship with these organizations is an integral part of our being able to work toward our mission of communicating the Gospel globally.
- 7 Thursday — Last year, AWMedia saw more people saved through their ministry than ever before. Now they are working to provide material to disciple these new believers, many of whom live in countries that harshly oppose their faith.
- 8 Friday — At Ploshchad station in Russia, there is a bronze statue of a dog. The dog’s nose is shiny because so many people touch it for good luck. Often times, superstitions such as this one must be overcome, in order to reach people for Christ.
- 9 Saturday — It has now been four years since the initial launch of HopeStreamRadio, the English internet radio station of FBH International. As our listener base grows, we seek direction from God on providing new and exciting content.
- 10 Sunday — Last month, Joe Owen from Answers in Genesis was able to visit Mexico City and record some programs for the coming year with Nathan. These programs were recorded in Spanish and will be part of the ministry to Latin America.
- 11 Monday — Vladimir, an FEBC worker, runs a camp in Eastern Ukraine. He commented, “As the children were playing outside, we could hear the artillery fire from both sides.” Vladimir is dedicated to helping these children know Jesus.
- 12 Tuesday — Don is the manager of the building where the FBH office is located. Lately, he has had his hands full with construction in several of the other units. We enjoy a good relationship with Don, and pray for him at this busy time.
- 13 Wednesday — Ahna, a Yemeni student, became interested in Christianity through a friend. Amidst concern of what her family might do if they discover her new faith, she still met with a local believer and has accepted Jesus as Lord.
- 14 Thursday — Andrey produces programs in Moscow designed to teach young people about Jesus. He receives many positive responses from thankful listeners. Andrey is married with two daughters.
- 15 Friday — HopeStreamRadio has been so blessed by the quality of the Sunday Sermons we have received, and the willingness of the chapels and speakers to share them with our listeners. We pray for continued provision of these messages.
- 16 Saturday — A friend of Nathan Diaz has acquired a radio station in Veracruz, Mexico. His plan is to open a Christian radio station in the city, and while he has the permits for the station, he still needs to obtain the broadcasting equipment.

- 17 Sunday — FEBC operates 5 radio stations inside the war zone in Eastern Ukraine. The people of this region suffer economically, psychologically and spiritually. We are thankful for these stations that are broadcasting hope through Jesus Christ.
- 18 Monday — We are working on a series of FBH update videos. The videos are intended for distribution to chapels we are not able to regularly visit. Contact Deborah if you are interested at 1-800-567-1218.
- 19 Tuesday — Please pray for responders in Turkey and Egypt. These two countries see the highest number of seekers who desire personal contact with the AWMedia team to discuss the person of Jesus Christ and Christianity.
- 20 Wednesday — There are number of people in Russia responding to FEBC, who admit they are not believers, but listen regularly and enjoy the messages being shared. Pray that they will continue to listen, and will be led to faith soon.

- 24 Sunday — We are thankful today for the many lives who have been impacted over the years through the radio ministry of FBH International. We also are grateful that the work has been allowed to continue, and the Gospel proclaimed.
- 25 Monday — In Morocco, a young man named Moez recently professed salvation in Christ. Please ask the Lord to protect Moez, as he says the law in Morocco can punish those who leave Islam with fines and imprisonment.
- 26 Tuesday — Winter in Russia, particularly in central Asia, can be harsh, and very cold. It will always result in extra costs for heating, as well as other challenges. Please pray that the people there will stay warm and healthy.
